Wind and Sea.

The Sea is a jovial comrade,
He laughs wherever he goes;
His merriment shines in the dimpling lines
That wrinkle his hale response;
He lays himself down at the feet of the sun,
And shakes all over with glee,
And the broad-backed billows fall faint on the shore,
In the mirth of the mighty Sea!

But the Wind is sad and restless,
And cursed with an inward pain;
You way hark as you will, by valley or hill,
But you hear him still complain,
He waits on the barren mountains,
And shrieks on the wintry sea;
He sobs in the cedar, and moans in the pine,
And shudders all over the aspen tree.

Welcome are both their voices,
And I know not which is best—
The laughter that slips from the Ocean's lips,
Or the comfortless Wind's unrest.
There's a pang in all rejoicing,
A joy in the heart of pain,
And the Wind that saddens, the Sea that gladdens,
Are singing the self-same strain!

The Soldiers and Gen. Grant.

We notice that General Order No. 23, issued by General Shepherd, commanding in Alabama, rebuking the soldiers who at a political meeting gave three cheers for McClellan, three groans for Grant, and three cheers for President Johnson, is traveling a very wide circuit through the country. Journals friendly to free speech, and which accord to soldiers the privilege of having opinions on political topics, are giving wide circulation to an order which brands as "military insubordination" the expression by the soldiers of their political opinions concerning the political man General Grant. We are glad to notice that this order has traveled from Alabama into every Northern State, and we hope that every soldier in the land will see and read it, and think upon what it means. Certain soldiers were present at a "carpet-bag and scallawag" political meeting in Montgomery, Alabama. While there they cheered for McClellan and Johnson and groaned for Grant. We have nothing to say about the propriety and taste of groaning at political meetings to signify disapprobation. If the soldiers in question were guilty of indecorum, and of disturbing a meeting by their cheering and groaning, they were entitled to rebuke from their superior officer. But General Shepherd did not visit his censure upon them for going to a meeting to disturb it, and for indecorous behavior there. He charges that groaning for Grant was "insubordination and disgrace," since it was against the General of the army; and he couples his phraseology concerning "disgraceful acts and insubordination," with the admonition that soldiers should "abstain from any expression of political opinion as to persons or parties."

It was perfectly well known to General Shepherd that the expression of disapprobation on the part of the soldiers had no reference to General Grant, the Commander-in-Chief of the army, but to Hiram Ulysses Grant, radical candidate for the Presidency. It was no more an act of military insubordination to groan against the radical candidate than it would be to vote against him. But here we have General Shepherd, a subordinate to General Grant, and subject to his orders, proclaiming at the commencement of the Presidential campaign that the soldier who expresses his political opinions against Grant by groans is guilty of insubordination and disgrace, and warning soldiers to abstain from any expression of political opinions as to individuals or parties. The order of General Shepherd would show that General Grant, radical candidate for the Presidency, is to have the assistance of his military subordinates in his political as well as his military capacity; and that political opposition on the part of soldiers is to be silenced by military orders, as civil governments were superseded by them in the process of reconstruction. Did anybody ever know a military officer to issue an order restraining the expression of opinion when it was favorable to radicalism? How was it when commissions from Missouri, New York, Ohio, and other States went through all the armies seeking for radical votes from soldiers? Was it not the boast of radicals that the political opinions of the soldiers were anti-Democratic, and did they not travel through every camp seeking for an expression of such opinions? But now, so sacred is the person of General Grant, and so closely identified are the personalities of the army General and the radical politician, that the expression of a political opinion adverse to the radical politician becomes an offense to the General. The radicals have exceeding love for the soldiers. But it is for radical soldiers. Radical soldiers may cheer and groan for whomsoever they please. Radical soldiers may groan for their Commander-in-Chief, the President, if they will only cheer for his subordinate, Grant. Radical soldiers are taken under the protecting wing of the Senate, while scores of conservative and Democratic soldiers, covered thick with laurels won in battle, were driven forth rejected and disowned. There is something in this matter for the people to think of. It is well understood that armies are still to be maintained by the radicals in the reconstructed States. The Freedmen's Bureau, a military establishment, is to be continued there one year more. The grand object of the radicals, distinctly avowed on the floor of the House and the Senate, is to bring in those States as radical, and to secure their electoral votes. Grant, the head of the army, is to be the beneficiary of those votes; and he, the man who seeks the suffrages of a free people through his subordinates thus early in the campaign, silences opposition to himself by military orders. This is a forewarning that the American people will most assuredly heed. They will suffer no man to elect himself by force of arms.—[St. Louis Republican.

A FRENCH historian inquired of a very aged peasant if he noted any great changes since the Revolution. "No," was the reply, "only in my youth we had no umbrellas, and now everybody has one."

FAILED.—An insolvent debtor failed so badly once that he could not even "pay his addresses" to his lady-love, and she had to "give him his discharge."

Protest Against the Admission of Arkansas.

The recognized presence of three persons on the floor of this House from the State of Arkansas, sent here by military force acting under a Brigadier General of the army, but nevertheless claiming to be members of this Congress, and to share with us, the representatives of free States, in the imposition of taxes and customs, and other laws upon the people, makes it our imperative duty in this, the first case, to remonstrate most solemnly against this perilous and destructive innovation upon the principles and practices of our hitherto constitutional self-government. The so-called reconstruction acts, which created the military Governments in other Southern States, to share with us in the legislative power of the Northern and Western free people, we have every reason to believe have been held to be unconstitutional by the Supreme Court of the United States, the public declaration of which fact was avoided, only by the extraordinary and strange device of this Congress, in snatching the jurisdiction from this Court in the McArdle case, when such a public decision was about to be made, of the three great branches of the Government, and it seems, then, that after the Executive vetoed these acts as unconstitutional, the Judiciary adjudicated them to be so, while a Congress, the creation of but 27 of the 37 States of the Union, overrides these equal and co-ordinate branches of that Government—first by voting down the vetoes, next by multiplying amendments to the Constitution. In an era of profound peace, when not an armed man rises against the Government from the Potomac to the Rio Grande, there, in ten States, our American historical way of creating the organic law has been utterly subverted by the bayonet. Ever since the Declaration of Independence, with scarcely an exception, conventions have been convoked through and Constitutions created by the electors of the States, the only authorized depositories of the soverign power of every State, without exterior dictation, as under the existing Federal Constitution. The hardest and harshest test oath r quired from 1776 to the peace of 1783 was an abjuration oath of allegiance to George the Third, while some of the now so-called bayonet Constitutions from the South propose absurd and cruel tests; absurd, as in Arkansas, where is interwoven in the organic law a mere party test between the radical reconstructionists and the Democratic conservatives such as would exclude from voting, if living there, the thousands, the tens of thousands and hundreds of thousands of Democrats in the free States (Article 8, Section 4), and cruel as in Alabama, where no white man can vote who will not forever forswear his own race and color, and perjure himself by swearing, in defiance of the law of God, that the negro is equal, and forever to be his equal, at the ballot box, the jury box, with the cartouche box, in the school, in the college, in the house and home, and by the fireside; in short, in every way, everywhere. (Article 7, Section 4.) Now, in these and the other Southern States, in the midst of the war, President Lincoln, in his proclamation of December 8, 1863, offered amnesty and pardon to the rebels then in arms, if they would lay down their arms and take an oath of fidelity; while now not a Union man in Arkansas can vote unless in the first place he swears allegiance to the majesty of this Congress, and in the next swears off his Americanism and Africanize himself. Hitherto Constitutions with us have been the outgrowth of popular life, springing from the exuberance of our enterprise and energy in the settlement of the forests or prairies of our country. But here before us now are nine Constitutions with one, if not three more, yet to come from Texas, which have all been imposed upon the people by five military satraps or pentarchies in a manner never before known under our law, but borrowed at best from imperial Roman colonization, or of the French revolution. France is then recorded to have had five Constitutions in three years—so frequently changed that they were ironically classed by the French people with the periodical literature of the day. Louisiana, a colony of that France, has had four Constitutions in four years, and a Constitution there has now become periodical, as in Fance in the agonies and throes of the great revolution. Laws and statute laws which can never be created by Constitutions are appended more or less to all these Constitutions, and these bayonets created one branch of Government, with no Executive, no Senate, no House of Representatives, no Judiciary, and have ordained irreparable, irreversible laws, in the very organism of the State, such as cannot thus be created by the Executive, the Senate and the House of Representatives of legitimate governments when acting in unison and all combined. All this has been done without regard to preceding Constitutions or precedents, or to the common law of the State, or to the laws of the nation. The military, which under legitimate institutions can only be used in times of peace to conserve or preserve the State, have here been used to destroy the States. The General of the army, who represents the sword, and only the sword of the Republic, has been exalted by acts of Congress above the Constitutional Commander-in-Chief of the Army and Navy, in order to execute those military decrees; and as the surer way to root out every vestige left of Constitutional law or liberty, the same General of the army, in order to prolong or to perpetuate his military domination with North and West as well as the South, has been selected in party convention at Chicago to head the electoral vote for the Presidency in ten of our States, which are as much under his foot as Turkey is under the Sultan, or Poland under the Czar of Russia. But as if only to add insult to the injury of this military outrage upon the popular government of these ten States, they have made State Constitutions at a cost of $250,000; the whites have been disfranchised, while 750,000 negroes, inexperienced in all lawmaking, and more ignorant than children, have been enfranchised in their stead, and have thus been vested masters and sovereigns over the whole white population of the South.

Because of all this, and in opposition to all this, we, representatives of the people, from the free States, in behalf of our constituents, and of thousands and tens of thousands of others who would be here represented if the popular power without could now constitutionally act here within, earnestly an solemnly protest against this violence upon our constitution and upon our people, and hereby counsel and advise all friends of popular government to submit to this fraud only until at the ballot box, operating through the elections, this great wrong can be put right. There is no law in the land over the Constitutional law. There is no government but constitutional government, and hence all bayonet-made, all Congress-imposed Constitutions are of no weight, authority or sanction, save that enforced by arms, an element of power unknown to Americans in peace and never required. But as it acts in and under supreme civil law, the Constitution and the statutes enacted in pursuance thereof, we protest then in behalf of the free people of the North and West against the right of the military oligarchy established in Arkansas or elsewhere in the now re-enslaved States of the South, to impose upon us through Congress taxes upon customs or other laws to maintain this oligarchy or its Freedman's Bureau. We protest against going into the now proposed copartnership of military dictators and negroes in the administration of this Government. We demand, in the name of the fathers of the Constitution, and for the sake of posterity, not its reconstruction, but the restoration of that sacred instrument which has been to us all a "pillar of fire" from 1786 on to its present overthrow; and in all solemnity, before God and man, under a full sense of the responsibility of all we utter, we do hereby fix our names to this protest against the admission of these three persons, claiming to be members of Congress from Arkansas.

Mark Twain on Female Suffrage.

"Mark Twain" writes to his "Cousin Jennie" on the subject of "Female Suffrage," as follows:

There is one insuperable obstacle in the way of female suffrage, Jennie; I approach the subject with fear and trembling, but it must out. A woman would never vote; because she would have to tell her age at the polls. And even if she did dare to vote once or twice when she was just of age, you know what dire results would flow from "putting this and that together" in after times. For instance, in an unguarded moment, Miss A. says she voted for Mr. Smith. Her auditor, who knows that it has been seven years since Smith ran for anything, easily ciphers out that she is at least seven years over age, instead of the young pullet she has been making herself out to be. No, Jennie, this new fashion of registering the name, age, residence and occupation of every voter is a fatal bar to female suffrage.

Women will never be permitted to vote or hold office, Jennie, and it is a lucky thing for me, and for many other men, that such is the decree of fate. Because, you see, there are some few measures they would all unite on—there are one or two measures that would bring out their entire voting strength, in spite of their antipathy to making themselves conspicuous; and there being vastly more women than men in this State, they would trot those measures through the Legislature with a velocity that would be appalling. For instance, they would enact:

1. That all men should be at home by ten P. M., without fail.

2. That married men should bestow considerable attention on their own wives.

3. That it should be a hanging offense to sell whisky in saloons, and that fine and disfranchisement should follow drinking it in such places.

4. That the smoking of cigars to excess should be forbidden, and the smoking of pipes utterly abolished.

5. That the wife should have a little of her own property when she married a man who hadn't any.

Jennie, such tyranny as this we could never stand. Our free souls could never endure such degrading thraldom. Woman, go your way! Seek not to beguile us of our imperial privileges. Content yourself with your little feminine trifles—your babies, your benevolent societies, and your knitting—and let your natural bosses do the voting. Stand back—you will be wanting to go to war next. We will let you teach school as much as you want to, and we will pay you half wages for it, too, but beware! we don't want you to crowd us too much.

If I get time, Cousin Jennie, I will furnish you a picture of a female Legislature that will distress you—I know it will, because you cannot disguise from me the fact that you are no more in favor of female suffrage, really, than I am. MARK TWAIN.

P. S. That tiresome old goose, my wife, is prancing around like a lunatic, up stairs, rehearsing a speech in favor of female suffrage, which she is to deliver before a mass-meeting of seditious old maids in my back parlor to-night. (She is a vigorous speaker, but you can smell her eloquence further than you can hear it; it is on account of the gin, I think.) It is a pity those old skeletons have chosen my back parlor, because I have concluded to touch off a keg of powder under there to-night, and I am afraid the noise may disturb their deliberations some. Democratic Weapons.

The campaign having fairly commenced, it is time now that the Democracy should be actively engaged in securing the means of victory. Our opponents are determined in their purposes, and will resort to any measures calculated to further their designs. They have their "Loyal Leagues," "Freedom's Defenders" and "Grand Army of the Republic" to be met and overcome. These secret, oath-bound organizations are controlled by bad men—men who are cowardly by nature, yet desperate when they have power in their hands. They are armed and ready at the bidding of their masters to do violence to those who oppose them in political sentiment. While these evils exist, it is the plain duty of all true Democrats to be on guard and make use of all honorable means to counteract and weaken the force of our enemies. We must prepare to meet them, to challenge them, to rout them—not with the same weapons they are preparing for us, nor with the same spirit of hatred and fanaticism as that engendered in their midnight councils. Democracy needs no secret plotting or base and dishonorable spirit of the midnight assassin to protect its interests, or perpetuate its power. In the justness of its motives, it is fearless in the face of all opposition. Darkness and secrecy are not necessary for the adoption of its policy. It shirks not from the free and open discussion of its time-honored principles. It needs only to unite and let its voice be heard in the cause of Right, and its armed enemies will be as harmless as lambs. The voice of the people is their dread. No arms are necessary in the contest before us. Organization, for free discussion, is what we want. Sound, genuine Democratic documents, for free distribution, is what we must have. Democratic truths, written and spoken, are more potent in their influence, for our purposes, than tons of powder and ball. With weapons like these, we can go forth, confidently, to battle against our foes, and the onward tramp of Democratic hosts will keep time with its shouts of victory.

In every city, town, hamlet and election precinct in the United States, there should be Democratic Clubs organized, and committees appointed to procure and circulate Democratic documents. Every Democrat in the land should nerve himself for the task before him, and lose no opportunity for doing honest, earnest work in the good cause. The peace and prosperity of the country depend on the election of Seymour and Blair. Hopeless ruin would inevitably follow their defeat. The triumph of Democracy is the triumph of the Constitution and good Government. Its defeat is the end of both. The prize to be gained is worthy of the ceaseless efforts of every patriot in the land, rich or poor, humble or lordly. Gird on the armor and enlist for the campaign!

NOT SATISFIED.—The negroes of Kentucky, Missouri, West Virginia, Delaware and Maryland are not satisfied with the policy of Radicalism. They think they have as much right to vote as the negroes of the South, and have determined to hold a Convention in Baltimore on the 4th of August for the purpose of securing the right of suffrage. The hypocritical action of the mongrel Convention which adopted a platform making a distinction in favor of the most ignorant of their race don't exactly suit their views, and we don't blame them. If Congress presumes to enfranchise them in one section, it certainly has no right to refuse to extend the same privileges to their brothers of another section. Hold your Convention, Sambo, and make the Radicals come to time.

REPUBLICAN VERACITY.—The Record of the 15th inst. contains the following:

It appears that the nomination of Frank Blair is very unsatisfactory to the species across the Bay. The Examiner not only refused to put him up, but other of the sovereigns are disposed to take him down.

That is pretty good, considering the fact that the Examiner not only has the name of Frank Blair at the head of its columns, but endorses him as a statesman and high-toned gentleman, every way worthy of the high position to which he aspires. We have heard of no one who is disposed to take him down except the Record folks, who are sure to fail in the attempt.

PROBABLY.—The Hamilton (Ohio) True Telegraph says: "A New York punster challenged a sick man's vote at a recent election, on the ground that he was an ILLegal voter. Probably it was the same person who challenged a squint-eyed voter, because he was not natural eyes-ed."

How the News is Received.

If, when the intelligence first flashed across the wires announcing the nomination of Seymour and Blair, there was a single doubt as to how the news would be received by the Democracy, or if our enemies indulged in their wonted hope of witnessing disaffection in our ranks, for which alone they have prayed as the only possible foundation for our defeat, that doubt has been dispelled by most convincing proofs all over the State that the people are united in their opposition to Radical rule. That vain hope has vanished like mist before a Summer sun, the doubtful and timid and envious have been deafened by the roar of artillery and glad huzzas everywhere heard in honor of the event. Blazing bonfires, waving flags and the cheering voices of hopeful patriots, seen and heard over the hills and valleys of California, display in unmistakable terms the unanimous sentiment of Democracy in favor of the triumphant election of Seymour and Blair.

The bold and manly declaration of principles set forth in the platform adopted by the Convention cannot fail to secure the earnest and enthusiastic support of all who believe that the Government should be administered by white men; that with the return of peace military rule should give place to civil law, and that social order should reign instead of mob violence; that the just and equal rights of every State should be restored and maintained; that no partial distinctions should be made between the workingmen and the bondholder; and that unwavering devotion to the Constitution is the only safeguard to the life and prosperity of the nation. The bitter fruits of mad fanaticism and the reckless disregard of established law by corrupt men in high places have so long threatened the destruction of the Government that it is not surprising the people should hail with unrestrained joy a declaration of principles endorsed by gallant standard-bearers to lead them safely out of impending ruin and restore confidence and fraternal affection in the hearts of the people. The time has now come for action—earnest, harmonious and enthusiastic. With such a platform and such statesmen as Seymour and Blair at the head of the ticket, there is no cause for despondency, no reason for failure. The booming of cannon at this moment announces that the people are thoroughly aroused, and that the days of Radical misrule and corruption are numbered.

NEW BOOKS.—Our thanks are due to H. H. Bancroft & Co. for several valuable copies of new works recently published by that firm. "The Report of J. Ross Browne on the Mineral Resources of States and Territories West of the Rocky Mountains" is a work of rare value, embracing a complete descriptive and statistical exhibit of the mines, agriculture, manufactures, commerce and miscellaneous resources of California, Oregon, Washington, Idaho, Montana, Nevada, Utah, Arizona and Alaska. Among other works received from the same source are: "Why Not?" a book for every woman; "Is It I?" a book for every man, by Dr. Storer; "Woman's Rights" and "Serpents in the Dove's Nest," by Rev. John Todd, D.D.

POSITION OF HALLECK.—There seems to be some question at the Bay as to how Gen. Halleck stands on the political issues of the day. The Sacramento Reporter had a telegram a day or two since stating that the General had declared for Seymour, but the Bulletin says it is reported that the General denies the correctness of the telegram, and that there is an on dit floating around which says the General is not for Seymour and Blair. This question should be settled at once and for all time. The people ought to know whether they have to march over the likes and dislikes of Halleck, or whether he is going with the "Army which marches to Rome." They will not stop whether he be for or against them, for no one man in the world can change the inevitable course which the people have taken. General Halleck in the line would rejoice the people, but General Halleck out of the line will not halt or stay their course.—[Grass Valley Union.

SHARP PRACTICE.—A young negro in Sacramento started out a few days ago to solicit subscriptions for defraying the funeral expenses of "Old Mose," the pioneer bootblack, who was represented by the young rascal as "done gone dead." Mose, hearing of the affair, was very indignant, and made complaint to an officer of the law, who issued a warrant for the arrest of the sacrilegious scamp. The solicitor eluded pursuit, and escaped with the burial fund.

DEMOCRATIC REJOICING IN CHICAGO.—The following dispatch was received yesterday by the Sacramento Reporter:

CHICAGO, July 14.—The Democrats are holding an immense ratification meeting. Court House square is already packed. The streets are filled with a long torch-light procession of several thousand. The meeting is addressed by distinguished speakers, and great jubilation is manifested.

RATHER PREMATURE.—It is said that Wade, so confident of the conviction of the President on the eleventh impeachment article, actually made arrangements to commence housekeeping in the White House, where he expected to be snugly quartered on the first of June.

A SPORTING GLUTTON.—A man in San Francisco won a bet by eating forty-one dozen Shoalwater Bay oysters and drinking three bottles of English porter in thirty minutes. He gained seven pounds by the performance, and proved himself a fool in the bargain.

EXTREME HEAT.—Telegrams from the East represent the weather as unusually oppressive. A large number of deaths have occurred from sun-stroke, in New York, Rochester, Toronto and other cities.

National Democratic Platform.

We publish below a telegraphic synopsis of the Platform adopted by the National Democratic Convention on the 7th instant. It is eminently sound, and will not fail to meet the hearty endorsement of Democrats and conservatives in every State in the Union:

The Democratic party, in National Convention assembled, standing, as ever, by the Constitution of the Government and the guarantees of the liberties of the citizen, recognizing as consequences of the late civil war the extinction of slavery and of the heresy of secession, with the return of peace, demand,

First—The restoration of all the States to their rights in the Union, and the restoration of civil Government to the American people.

Second—Amnesty for all political offenses, and the regulation of the elective franchise in the States by their citizens.

Third—Payment of the national obligations in strict accordance with their terms.

Fourth—Taxation of Government Bonds to the same extent that other property is taxed.

Fifth—One currency for the Government and people, laborer, office-holder, pensioner, and bond-holder.

Sixth—Economy in the administration of the Government—reduction of the standing army and navy, abolition of the Freedman's Bureau and all political instrumentalities designed to secure negro supremacy; the simplification of the revenue system, and a discontinuance of inquisitorial modes of assessing and collecting internal revenue, so that the burdens of taxation may be equalized and lessened and the credit of the Government increased, the currency made good and the national debt funded at a lower rate of interest.

Seventh—Reform of abuses in the Administration—expulsion of corrupt men from office, the reservation of the public lands for homes for the working people, restoration of the rightful authority and independence of the Executive and Judiciary, and subordination of the military to the civil rule, to the end that usurpation by Congress and the despotism of the sword may cease.

Eighth—Equal rights and protection for naturalized and native born citizens at home and abroad. An assertion of American nationality which shall command the respect of foreign Powers, and furnish example and encouragement to people struggling for national integrity and constitutional liberty.

The ninth denounces the usurpation and tyranny of the radical party in the violation of its pledges to conduct the war only for the preservation of the Union, and not for the subjugation of States, or the overthrow of freedom of speech or the press. It declares that, instead thereof, the radicals have established a principle of espionage, in disregard of the habeas corpus, have made the National Capital a Bastile, and threaten now to destroy the original jurisdiction of the Supreme Court, and have maligned its Chief Justice because of his integrity on the trial of the President.

The Platform continues at considerable length to reiterate these abuses, and in conclusion declares the privilege and trust of suffrage belongs exclusively to the control of each State, and that Congress has usurped it in violation of the Constitution.

The Platform further specifically denounces the Reconstruction Acts of Congress as usupation, unconstitutional and void, and demands that the pensions of soldiers and sailors shall be faithfully paid, and the public lands should be reserved as homesteads. It thanks Andrew Johnson for resisting the aggressions of Congress.

Great cheers were given in the conclusion of the Platform, which invites men of all parties to unite upon this platform. It contains four demands, as follows: Payment of the public debt of the United States as rapidly as practicable; that all money drawn from the people by taxation, except so much as is requisite for the necessities of Government economically administered, shall be honestly applied to such payment, and when obligations of government do not expressly state upon their face, and the law under which they were issued does not provide they shall be paid in coin, that they ought in right and justice to be paid in lawful money of the United States.

PACIFIC ROLLING MILLS.—These works, located at Potrero Point, are now very nearly in full operation. It may be remembered that the forge was started last January. The rolls were set in motion just one week ago. Fifty-five men are employed. The skilled workmen came out especially for these mills from the East. They are very experienced. There are four heating furnaces in the mill department; one puddling furnace and one heating furnace in the forge department. The iron used is "scrap." It came, in part, from Sacramento and Benicia. The rest was gathered in this city and vicinity. It is expected that these works will, in time, lead to mines being opened for iron ore and the erection of a blast furnace to make pig iron. If the four heating furnaces were used on finished iron it is said the establishment could turn out from eighteen to twenty tons of work per day at the rolls. A spike machine has been introduced. It will be in operation about the 1st prox.; capacity, sixty spikes per minute.—[San Francisco Bulletin.

TEMPERANCE PARTY.—The Right Worthy Grand Lodge of Good Templars recently adopted the following report of a special Committee:

WHEREAS, We are clearly convinced of the absolute necessity of political action in order to the ultimate and uniform success of the temperance reform; and

WHEREAS, It is manifest that neither of the now existing political parties will accept of our principles; therefore

Resolved, That we recommend to the temperance people of the country, as soon as practicable, the organization of a National Political Party, which shall embrace in its platform of principles Prohibition of the manufacture, importation, and sale of intoxicating liquors to be used as a beverage.

FAST TIME.—A gentleman arrived in San Francisco, direct from New York, in thirteen days and six hours. This is, perhaps, the fastest time on record. As the two railroads are daily extending their lines toward each other the time for making the trip will become shorter and shorter. Through trains are expected to be running by the 4th of next July.

CROWDED.—There is no room for applicants for admission to the public schools of San Francisco.

WHAT A NAME!—Nationalunionrepublicanparty.

Primary Elections.

The present convention system of making party nominations is one that seldom gives satisfaction to the masses. It often occurs that the people are kept in ignorance of the names, even, of candidates for nomination, until announced by a nominating convention; and not less frequently their best wishes are defeated by corrupt influences prevalent in such bodies. In the history of all political parties, candidates have been placed before the people totally unfit for position and unworthy the confidence and support of those whose interests are jeopardized by such ill-advised selections, and although such cases may be exceptional, it is plainly necessary that some change of system should be agreed upon, better calculated to conform to the wishes of the people—a majority, at least, of whom, in each party, should be responsible for the character and competency of all candidates.

This subject has recently attracted much attention, and has been thoroughly discussed by the leading Democratic papers of the State. A disposition to abandon the present system, seems to be gaining ground, and instead thereof to adopt a plan by which candidates may be selected by a direct vote of the party. It is proposed that the primaries be held under Porter's election law—the nominees of the party to be announced by authority of the highest number of votes polled for the aspirants for the respective offices to be filled. We believe the adoption of such a system would be the means of bringing about more unanimity in party action, of preventing bargain and fraud, and securing better men for office. The Fourth Ward Democratic Club, of San Francisco, has been first to adopt the plan. We give below the resolutions passed by the Club:

WHEREAS, The people are the source from whence is derived all official power, and are the only proper custodians of their own government, rights and privileges; and

WHEREAS, Experience of the past plainly admonishes us to adopt a system of making nominations more directly in consonance and convenience with the public desire and interest, and to avoid strife, corruption and perpetual dissatisfaction hitherto—to eschew the blandishments of sub agents, caucusses, and all other iniquitous schemes—under whatever name or organization, but to create and maintain unblemished the just Democratic principle, that "the governed are so only by their own choice of their public servants;" be it therefore

Resolved, By the Democratic Club of the Fourth Ward, that we recommend the following as a plan most likely to succeed in accomplishing the result aforesaid, and to that end we invite the attention and co-operation of all the Democratic Ward Clubs in the city, and their immediate action thereon is desired:

First—That timely public notice be given by the County Committee, or otherwise, to all who desire to become candidates for office, that a choice of candidates will be made by the simultaneous action of the Clubs in the city.

Second—All wishing or intending to become candidates for any office, may make written application for the same to the County Committee.

Third—No more than a selection for two offices should be had at any one meeting of the Clubs.

Fourth—The selection in the Clubs, for all the candidates for office, shall be had in open meetings of the Clubs, by votes given or cast by the members only of the Clubs, respectively, under the direction of its officers, certified returns of which, signed by the acting officers of the Club, shall be made to the County Committee for publication.

Fifth—The person receiving the majority of the Clubs in the aggregate for any given office, shall be declared the nominee for such office.

Sixth—In any Ward, any person chosen a candidate by established fraud, shall be deemed not to have been a candidate in such Ward.

Seventh—In default of action by the County Committae, in giving public notice, etc., the acting Presidents of the several Clubs may be authorized to act in their stead for this particular purpose.

Amendment to Resolution "Fourth"—For the present year all Democrats, or persons who subscribe to the platform presented by the National Democratic Convention, may be permitted to participate in such primary election, whether members or not of the Club in the Ward where they reside.

A HERO.—One of the victims of the terrible disaster at Oakland, whose body was recovered from its watery grave, is spoken of thus by the Oakland News:

The next person found was a man, whose name was Charles Gaginonini. He was a native of Switzerland, 25 years of age. He had for some months been employed in the soda water factory of D. Ghirardelli, of this city. He was found grasping the body of Mrs. Saunders, and it was apparent that the last effort of his life was to preserve a fellow creature. He had voluntarily plunged from the deck of the steamer, and rescued several persons from drowning, but at last fell a victim. His death was truly a heroic one, and many names that have become historical are entitled to no greater fame. So tight was his grasp upon the one he would save, that they were drawn to the surface together. Eye witnesses state that he saved the lives of at least four persons.

WILL GUARD AGAINST IT.—The Record says:

In our Government accident often elevates weak minds to public trust.

That is just what the people intend to prevent. They don't intend that ignorance shall sit in high places, or that a man who acknowledges himself incapable of expressing a political opinion shall become President. They will guard against such accidents.

GREELEY is now for Grant, but he was not when he wrote the following:

More soldiers were ruthlessly slaughtered in the late war through the blunders of drunken officers than by the bullets of the foe.

REPENTING.—A Republican exchange says: "Let us make no compromise with traitors or treason." Then we warn you above all things to have no dealings with your own party.

BLAIR.

The nominee of the Democratic party for the Vice Presidency is one who will not fail to secure the enthusiastic support of Democrats and Conservatives tired and disgusted with Radical rule. General Blair has always distinguished himself as a ripe scholar, a brave soldier, and polished gentleman, actuated by unselfish, conscientious and patriotic motives. He fought gallantly through the war, sincerely believing that the fruits of victory would bring peace and prosperity to a restored Union, and that sectional discord would no more disturb the happiness of the people. At the close of the war the utter want of magnanimity shown by Radical leaders and the vile corruptions displayed in the legislation of Radical councils met with his unqualified condemnation, and with powerful eloquence he bravely opposed their wicked schemes. Such a man cannot fail to enlist the united support of his friends, while his enemies must be compelled to respect his manly spirit of independence and conscious rectitude. The Buckingham (Va.) Register, in advocating his claims, makes the following remarks:

When General Lee surrendered his armies, General Blair laid aside his sword and traversed his State from one extreme to the other in denunciation of the Jacobin cabals which held in vassalage his own people, declaring for the equal political rights of Northern and Southern soldiers, and the integrity of the Union, for which, and that alone, he had imperiled his life. From that time until the present he has been an aggressive advocate of the restoration of the Southern States to their Constitutional relations to the Government. There has been no temporizing or compromise in anything he has said or done. He is no hesitating or half-way man. Determined in his character, comprehensive in his mind, and consistent in his military and political record, his name, if presented by the National Democratic Convention which assembles in New York on the Fourth of July, to the people of the North, will be the rallying point for every shade of opposition to the radical despotism which is now rushing the country headlong to ruin.

COLFAX A KNOW-NOTHING.—Schuyler Colfax was initiated into a Know-Nothing Lodge at South Bend, Indiana, in 1854. This fact is vouched for by the Indianapolis Sentinel. The following oaths were there and then subscribed to by the Radical candidate for Vice President. It would be well for naturalized citizens to read and ponder:

First Degree.—In the presence of the Almighty God and these witnesses you do solemnly promise and swear that you, Schuyler Colfax, will not vote, nor give your influence, for any man, for any office in the gift of the people, unless he be an American-born citizen, in favor of Americans ruling America, nor if he be a Roman Catholic.

Second Degree.—In the presence of Almighty God and these witnesses you do solemnly and sincerely swear * * * if it may be legally done, you will, when elected or appointed to any official station conferring on you power to do so remove all foreigners, aliens, or Roman Catholics from office or place, and that you will in no case appoint such to any office or place in your gift.

STRONG THREAT.—John W. Forney, in a letter from Chicago to his paper in Washington, on the nomination of Grant and Colfax, makes use of the following incendiary, threatening and atrocious language:

"The radical party, five hundred thousand strong, composed of the black Union Leagues of the South and the white Loyalists of the North, are armed cap a-pie and are ready with the ballot or bayonet to carry the election this fall."

Had a Democrat uttered such language in behalf of his party, the radicals, and Forney with them, would have denounced it as treasonable. Neither black ballots nor "loyalist" bayonets can overcome or intimidate the Democracy, however.—[Capital Reporter.

TOWN AND COUNTY MATTERS.

KNIGHT'S LANDING RACES.—The races at Knight's Landing last Saturday were well attended. Four entries were made, trotting race, mile heats best two in three, to harness. On the first heat the contest was spirited between Gidding's "Abe" and Edson's "Flying Gib," "Abe" taking the lead and winning the heat in 3:12½. Glasscock's "Lantern" saved his distance by a scratch, and Buchanan's "May Queen" was distanced. The second heat was also won by "Abe" in 3:9½, closely followed by "Flying Gib," "Lantern" distanced.

Giddings' "Abe"	1 1
Edson's "Flying Gib"	2 2
Glasscock's "Lantern"	3 dis.
Buchanan's "May Queen"	dis.

Time—3:12½, 3:9½.

CAN IT BE POSSIBLE that over five million bottles of Plantation Bitters have been sold during the past year? It is almost incredible, nevertheless it is absolutely true, and is the most convincing proof of their wonderful medicinal and health-restoring qualities. Every family should be supplied with these Bitters, at whatever cost or trouble it may be to obtain them. Be careful that you get the genuine, and that you are not imposed upon by a spurious article.

THE RAILROAD.—We learn that the committee are still offering an opportunity for citizens to invest in the Woodland and Davisville Railroad, which the Vallejo Company propose building when the necessary amount of stock is taken. Hundreds of tons of grain will soon be ready for transportation from Yolo, and unless the road is speedily built the want of it will be sadly felt. Let us have the road by all means.

LARCENY OF CHICKENS.—On Sunday last B. A. Powers, who resides between this place and the Tule House, procured a warrant for the arrest of two individuals, whom he accused of stealing seven hundred chickens from him. The warrant was placed in the hands of the Constable, but no clue could be found to the whereabouts of the stolen property, and no arrest has been made. Powers offers a reward for the recovery of his chickens.

RATIFICATION MEETING AT DAVISVILLE.—We have never attended a more pleasant and enthusiastic political meeting than that which was held at Davisville last Saturday evening to ratify the nominations of the National Democratic Convention. A large crowd was in attendance, and all seemed pleased with the opportunity of doing honor to Seymour and Blair. Speeches were made by H. G. Burnett, Dr. H. B. Pearson, A. H. Pratt and others.

DEMOCRATIC MEETING AT KNIGHT'S LANDING.—On Friday evening, the 10th inst., the Knight's Landing Democracy were out in force to ratify the nominations. Unanimity and good feeling prevailed, and cheer after cheer went up for Seymour and Blair. Patriotic speeches were made by Judge Gwin and others. A delegation from Woodland was present at the meeting.

SERENADE.—On their return home from the ratification meeting at Knight's Landing the Woodland delegation halted at the residence of C. Nelson, on Cache Creek, and complimented him with a serenade. On making his appearance, Mr. Nelson was greeted with cheers, and the serenaders were invited to a feast, which was most agreeably enjoyed by all present.

FIRED HIS COAT OFF.—An enthusiastic Democrat, at the ratification meeting at Davisville on Saturday evening, while assisting in handling the Seymour gun, threw his coat on the ground, and afterward, in the darkness, mistook it for wadding and "rammed it home." The mistake was discovered too late, and the coatless hero was greeted with a cheer.

TOMBSTONES.—Those who desire to do honor in an appropriate manner to the memory of the dead have an opportunity to procure monuments and tombstones of any description required from S. H. Jackson, of the firm of J. C. Devine & Co., Sacramento. Mr. Jackson is receiving orders at Baker's Hotel, in this place, where he will remain for a short time.

POETRY.—Our Devil made an unsuccessful attempt at poetry last week; this week he gets off the following:

"In triumph we greet once more
The country's hope in brave Seymour;
Let bonfires blaze and cannons roar,—
Rejoice! the reign of Thad. is o'er."

RATIFICATION MEETING.—A call has been made for a grand Democratic ratification meeting in Woodland on Monday evening, the 20th inst. Eminent speakers have been announced to speak on the occasion, and the enthusiastic Democracy of Yolo will doubtless be out in force.

OPENING THE CAMPAIGN.—Hon. W. W. Pendegast, during a recent visit to Woodland, was invited on Tuesday evening to address the Democratic Club. He responded in an able and eloquent effort. A large number of ladies and gentlemen were present.

GUNS AT CACHEVILLE.—The Democracy of Cacheville met on Tuesday evening and fired round after round in honor of Seymour and Blair. That precinct is gaining ground in the good cause, and will make a good record in future.

GOING UP.—The foundation for the new brick hotel on the corner of Main and Mill streets has been laid, and the walls are rapidly rising. A corps of bricklayers from Sacramento are engaged in the work.

GRAND JURY.—The Grand Jury, at its sitting last week, found four true bills of indictment and one presentment; ignored two bills of indictment, and passed two to the next Grand Jury.

SALE AND PURCHASE.—We learn that Dr. A. Strong has sold his residence, near the College grounds, and purchased the property of David Hays, on Lincoln avenue.

"ROCK ME TO SLEEP, MOTHER."—A cradle for this purpose can be purchased cheap for cash, at Smith's furniture store, Templar building.

FURNITURE STORE.—J. K. Smith, adjoining Templar Hall, is prepared to furnish his customers with everything in the furniture line.

WEATHER.—In this locality we have experienced but little hot weather this season. The nights generally are cool and pleasant.

YOLO HOUSE.—Attention is called to the advertisement of this house, in another column.

ANNA DICKINSON'S ADVICE TO RADICALS.—"Unless you give the Northern negro the ballot you won't get the support of the negroes South."

"Grant is no standard-bearer when principles are to be fought for."

"Don't hide your principles, if you've got any, behind the smoke of one man's cigar."

A YAZOO CITY (Miss.) paper deplores the evil habits into which the men of that place have fallen—all of them averaging from three to nine drinks daily—and thus concludes his homily: "No gentleman need feel touched at our remarks, and say we are after motes in other people's eyes; for we very candidly acknowledge our partiality to the stuff, and if anybody thinks we will not take it, just let him bring along a bottle and try us. But does that alter facts? We are no doctor, and may be wrong; but the subject is worth consideration."

MERCED DEMOCRACY.—The Stockton Gazette is informed that the Democrats of Snellings, Merced county, ratified the nominations of Seymour and Blair on Monday evening last. Eloquent speeches were made by Judge Bradford, of Mariposa; W. S. Montgomery, of Snellings; and Messrs. Carr and Wilkes, of Stockton. The glorious Democracy of old Merced will sustain their ancient reputation, and make a splendid showing on election day.

INDIAN TREATIES.—A correspondent of the St. Louis Republican, who, with a small party traveling in New Mexico, was attacked by Comanches, expresses his surprise at their hostility, as he had just read a proclamation of the President announcing a treaty with the same Indians. From that he supposed the whites were at peace with the Comanches.

THE RAILROAD.—The Gold Hill News learns that the construction train of cars yesterday reached within one mile of Coffman's Station, fifteen miles east of the Big Bend of the Truckee river, and that the workmen are laying track at the rate of two or three miles a day.

AFFRAY NEAR LINCOLN.—An altercation occurred on the 14th inst. between two men, named Smith and Freeman, near Lincoln, Placer county, relative to land matters. Freeman was shot and mortally wounded by Smith, who was afterwards arrested by Sheriff Small.

BIG FISH.—A sturgeon was recently captured in the Sacramento, at Colby's Landing, which weighed five hundred and thirty-one pounds.

NOMINATED.—The President has nominated Silas H. Axtell as Assessor of Internal Revenue for the Third District of California.

MINISTER TO MEXICO.—It is rumored that President Johnson will nominate General Rosecrans as Minister to Mexico.

MORE TERRITORY.—Sonora and Sinaloa, according to a Washington special, has been purchased from Mexico by Seward.

THIRD PARTY.—John Quincy Adams is named as the probable candidate for President by a third party.

THE Democracy of Marysville will ratify the nominations of Seymour and Blair on Tuesday evening next.

A CHANCE FOR BACHELORS.—A woman in San Francisco has announced her intention to start a Matrimonial Agency in a few days.

THUNDER STORM.—Vallejo was visited last week by a severe thunder storm.

THE NEW

WEED

SEWING MACHINE!

Just completed, in SOLID STEEL MACHINERY, and combining in ONE the good of ALL!

This most enterprising Company has certainly brought out

THE BEST SEWING MACHINE EVER MADE!

And indeed is the ONLY NEW Sewing Machine, of any name, manufactured for the last eight years. Even a superficial observer can easily see that it surpasses all others, at least in the simplicity and durability of its machinery, and its remarkable

EASE OF MOTION AND MANAGEMENT.

It has few pieces, and all of steel. It makes the complete "Lock Stitch," the same on both sides, which will not ravel. Every Machine is warranted to sew from Thinest Lace, to Double Harness Leather!

and of course can never be got out of order by "hard sewing." ☞ All repairs free of charge. Prices same as others.

PLEASE NOTICE.

The claims of the Florence Company for the First Premium at the great Paris Exposition of 1867, though seeming true in letter, is really false in spirit and intent, and calculated greatly to deceive the public. Although it did receive the Silver Medal—that being the highest award given—it was not awarded the FIRST RANK! This was awarded the Weed Sewing Machine, and to the WEED only, as being "first in the order of merit." The second place was given to an European Machine, and only the third to the Florence! But the claim of the Wheeler & Wilson Company, at this Fair, is a great outrage, both as to letter and spirit; at least so much of it as pertains to their Gold Medal upon their Family Machine, which, to speak plain, is purely imaginary, they having received—as is well known—their Gold Medal on their "Button-hole Machine," but nothing at all on their "Family Machine;" not even a bronze medal, nor indeed (what is worse) even an "honorable mention." (See official report.) See also, as to the new WEED Sewing Machine, the returns of the State Fairs of Pennsylvania, Illinois, New Hampshire and New York, for 1867, at each of which the NEW WEED "F. F." Sewing Machine was pronounced the BEST, and received the highest premium given. And so also at other Fairs, and indeed wherever the Company shall choose to exhibit the "strong points" of this really magnificent Machine.

HELMBOLD'S BUCHU.

The only Known Remedy

—FOR—

Diabetes, Irritation of the Neck of the Bladder, Inflamation of the Kidneys, Catarrh of the Bladder, &c., &c., &c.

For these diseases, it is truly a sovereign remedy, and too much cannot be said in its praise. A single dose has been known to relieve the most urgent symptoms. Are you troubled with that disgusting pain in the small of the back and through the hips? A teaspoonful a day of Helmbold's Buchu will relieve you.

Physicians and Others

PLEASE NOTICE.

I make no secret of ingredients. Helmbold's Extract Buchu is composed of Buchu, Cubebs and Juniper Berries, selected with care, prepared in vacuo and according to the rules of Pharmacy and Chemistry.

These ingredients are known as the most valuable Diuretics afforded. A Diuretic is that which acts upon the Kidneys. Helmbold's Extract Buchu acts gently. It is pleasant in taste and odor, free from all injurious properties, and immediate in its action. For the satisfaction of all, see Medical Properties contained in Dispensatory of the United States, of which the following is a correct copy:

"BUCHU. Its odor is strong, diffusive and somewhat aromatic, its taste bitterish, and analogous to that of mint. It is given chiefly in complaints of the Urinary Organs, such as Gravel, chronic catarrh of the Bladder, morbid irritation of the Bladder and Uretha, diseases of the Prostrate, and Retention or Incontinence of Urine, from a loss of tone in the parts concerned in its evacuation. It has also been recommended in Dyspepsia, chronic Rheumatism, cutaneous affections and Dropsy."

For further information see Professor Dewees' valuable works on the Practice of Physic. See remarks made by the celebrated Dr. Physic, of Philadelphia. See any and all standard works on Medicine.

Dr. Keyser is a physician of over thirty years' experience, and a graduate of the Jefferson Medical college and of the University of Medicine and Surgery of Philadelphia:

Mr. H. T. HELMBOLD—Dear Sir: In regard to the question asked me as to my opinion about Buchu, I would say that I have used and sold the article in various forms for the past thirty years. I do not think there is any form or preparation of it I have not used or known to be used, in the various diseases where such medicate agent would be indicated. You are aware, as well as myself, that it has been extensively employed in the various diseases of the bladder and kidneys; and the reputation it has acquired, in my judgment, is warranted by the facts. I have seen and used, as before stated, every form of Buchu—the powdered leaves, the simple decoction, tincture fluid extracts; and I am not cognizant of any preparation of that plant at all equal to yours. Eighteen years' experience ought, I think, to give me the right to judge of its merits, and without prejudice or partiality I give yours precedence over all others. I value your Buchu for its effects on patients. I have cured with it, and seen cured with it, more diseases of the bladder and kidneys than I have ever seen cured with any other Buchu, or any other proprietory compound of whatever name. Respectfully yours, etc.,

GEO. H. KEYSER, M. D., 140 Wood st.
Pittsburg, Pa., August 11, 1865.

HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU.

FROM THE LARGEST MANUFACTURING CHEMIST IN THE WORLD.

I am acquainted with H. T. Helmbold; he occupies the drug store opposite my residence, and was successful in conducting the business where others had not been equally so before him. I have been favorably impressed with his character and enterprise. WM. WEIGHTMAN, (firm of Powers & Weightman), Manufacturing chemists, Ninth and Brown streets, Phila.

The proprietor has been induced to make this statement from the fact that his remedies, although advertised, are genuine preparations, and knowing that the intelligent refrain from using anything pertaining to Quackery, or the Patent Medicine order—most of which are prepared by self-styled doctors, who are too ignorant to read a physicians' simplest prescription, much less competent to prepare Pharmaceutical preparations. These parties resort to various means of effecting sales, such as copying parts of advertisements of popular remedies and finishing with certificates. The science of medicine stands simple, pure and majestic, having fact for its basis, induction for its pillar, truth alone for its capital.

A Word of Caution.

Health is most important; and the afflicted should not use an advertised medicine, or any remedy, unless its contents or ingredients are known to others besides the manufacturer, or until they are satisfied of the qualifications of the party so offering.

YOLO COUNTY DEMOCRAT.

Love's Philosophy.

The fountains mingle with the river,
And the rivers with the ocean;
The winds of heaven mix forever
With a sweet emotion;
Nothing in the world is single;
All things by a law divine
In one another's being mingle—
Why not I with thine?

See, the mountains kiss high heaven,
And the waves clap one another;
No sister flower would be forgiven,
If it disdained its brother;
And the sunlight clasps the earth,
And the moonbeams kiss the sea;
What are these kissings worth,
If thou kiss not me?

A PROTESTANT COW.—Paddy Murphy and his wife, Bridget, after many years of hard labor in ditching and washing, had accumulated a sufficiency (besides supporting themselves and their "childers") to purchase a cow, (of course they had pigs!) which they did at the first oppartunity. As it was bought of a Protestant neighbor, Paddy stopped on his way home at the house of the priest, and procured a bottle of holy water with which to exercise the faith out of her.

"Isn't she a foine creature!" asked Pat, of the admiring Bridget. "Jest hould her till I fix the shed."

To save the precious fluid from harm, he took it into the house and sat it up in a cupboard until he had "fixed" things. Then he returned and brought the bottle back again, and while Bridget was holding the rope, proceeded to pour it upon her back.

But poor Paddy had made a slight mistake. Standing within the same closet was a bottle of aquafortis, that had been procured for a far different purpose, and, as it dropped upon the back of the poor cow, and the hair began to smoke and the flesh burn, she exhibited decided symptoms of restlessness.

"Pour on more, Paddy," shouted Bridget as she tugged at the rope.

"I'll give her enough now," quoth Paddy, and he emptied the bottle.

Up went the heels of the cow, down went her head, over went Bridget and half a dozen of the "childers," and away dashed the infuriated bovine down the street, to the terror of all the mothers and the delight of the dogs.

Poor Paddy stood for a moment breathless with astonishment, and then, clapping his hands upon his hips, looked sorrowfully, and exclaimed:

"Be jabers, Bridget, but isn't the Protestant strong in her—the baste!"

TELL YOUR MOTHER.—I wonder how many young ladies tell their mother everything. Not those "young ladies" who, going to and from school, smile, bow and exchange notes and cartes de visite with young men who make fun of them and their pictures, speaking in a way that would make their cheeks burn with shame if they heard it. All this, most credulous, lovely and romantic young ladies, they will do, although they gaze at your fresh young faces admiringly, and send or give you charming verses and bouquets. No matter what "other girls do," don't you do it. School girl flirtations may end disastrously, as many a foolish, wretched young girl could tell you. Your yearning for some one to love is a great need of every woman's heart. But there is a time for everything. Don't let the bloom and freshness of your heart be washed off in silly flirtations. Render yourself truly intelligent. And, above all, tell your mother everything. Never be ashamed to tell her, who should be your best friend and confidant, all you think and feel. It is very strange that so many young girls will tell every person before "mother," that which is most important that she should know. It is very sad that indifferent persons should know more about her own fair daughters than she does herself.—[Fanny Fern.

HOW TO GET ANSWERS AND SAVE POSTAGE.—Persons who expect replies to their letters in due course of mail ought to commit to memory the following obvious rules:

1. Write legibly, if you can. Flourishes are not essential.
2. Date your letter.
3. Give your town, county and State.

[We may remark, by the way, that Congress should appoint a standing Committee to change every duplicated name of town throughout the country, using the aboriginal terms as far as they will go.]

4. Use only as many words as will clearly express your meaning.
5. When you order from persons who do not know you, give references.
6. In your order, make your figures and letters distinct.
7. Sign your name, "Yours truly" not being sufficient to identify the personality of the writer.
8. If the subject matter relates solely to your own profit or convenience, enclose a stamp or stamped envelope.
9. If you intend to enclose a money order, or anything else, be sure you do so.
10. See that the envelope is effectually closed.
11. Put on the full amount of stamps.
12. Address the envelope plainly and correctly.
13. Post the letter.

If, these precautions being used, you do not get a reply in due time, you may conscientiously rail at Uncle Samuel.

ONE night General Adams, of Tennessee, on returning to camp, was halted by a sentinel on an outpost. After giving the countersign, and telling the sentinel who he was, he got to questioning the man about his duties as sentry: "If you saw two men coming toward your post, what would you do?" "I would halt them, and then direct one to advance and give the countersign." "If three or four should approach, what would you do?" "I would do the same thing." "Suppose you saw a dozen coming, what then?" "I would do the same thing." "Suppose a whole regiment should come, what then?" "I would form a line as quick as possible." "What sort of a line could you form by yourself?" "A bee line for camp."

LITTLE ROGUE.—What a charming little picture is this, which we find in the Illustrated Chicago News:

I was sitting beside
My destined bride,
One still sentimental day;
"How I long," said I,
"But to make you cry,
And I'd kiss the bright tears away!"

Fair Cecily blush'd,
Her voice grew hush'd,
I thought she would cry to be sure;
But she lisp'd to me,
Pouting prettily,
"Prevention is better than cure!"

MISS FANNY HASKELL, of Batavia, N. Y., can play two airs on the piano with her right hand, one with her left, and sing a fourth, all at the same time! She must produce a "discord of sweet sounds."
